

REPORT 2: INTERNAL-FACING REPORT

With Universal Export's mission of solidifying its foothold as a leading producer of premium-quality garments, the part played by the sales team becomes significant in determining the company's growth, maximising profitability and strengthening the long-standing bond with its customers. This report aims to provide a comprehensive evaluation of the performance of salespeople in 2023.

The following key criteria are set by the management team for the evaluation of 18 salespeople's performance for promotion to deputy head and head of the sales department:

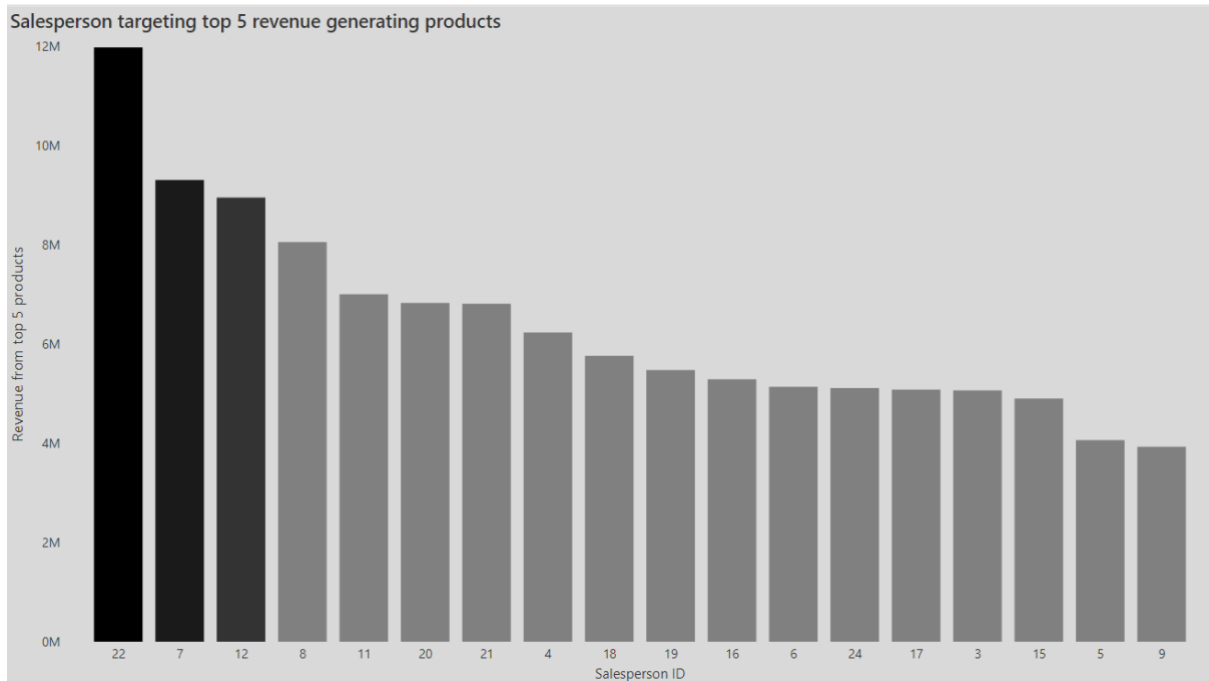

- Contribution to sales and profits
- Ability to acquire new customers
- Understanding of company margin and ability to target profitable products.

Contribution to Sales and profits:

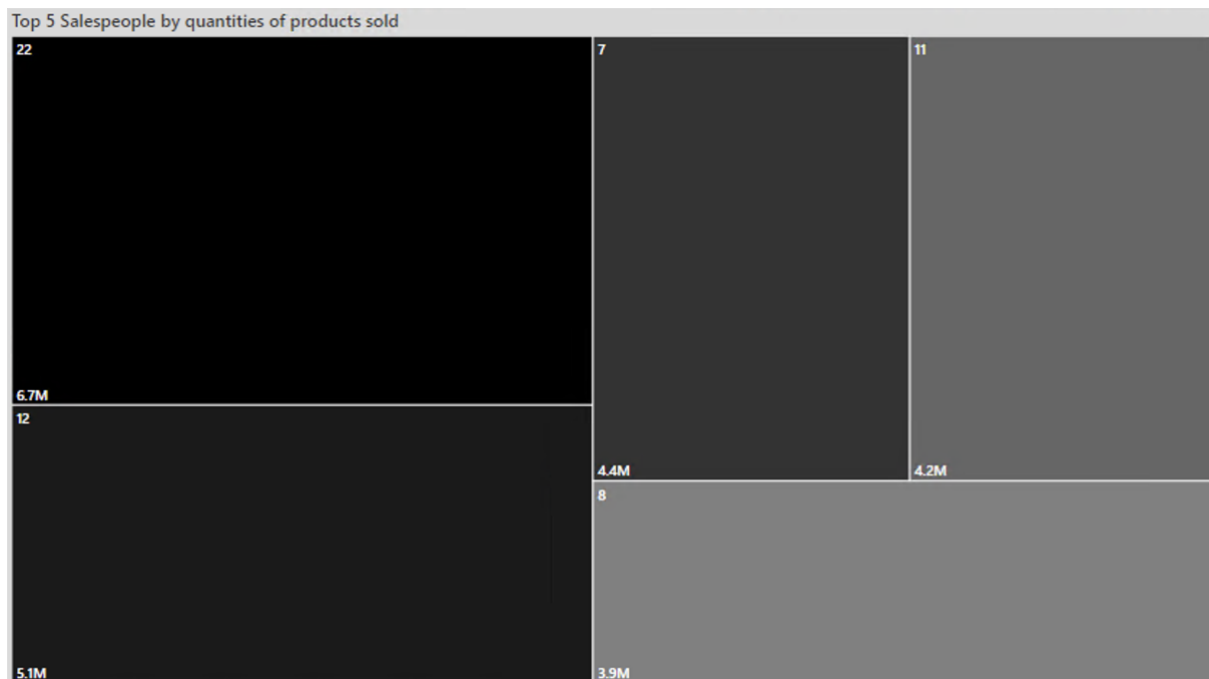

In terms of their contribution to the 2023 revenue and profit, the following salespeople were top performers:

- Salesperson 22 had the highest revenue contribution of 112M which constituted 10.7% of the total revenue and 50M to profits, the highest among profits made by other salespeople.
- Salesperson 12 came second with a revenue contribution of 85M and profits of 38M.
- Salesperson 7 is the third best performer with a revenue contribution of 75M and a profit of 34M.
- Salesperson 11 came in 4th followed by Salesperson 8 as the 5th best performer.

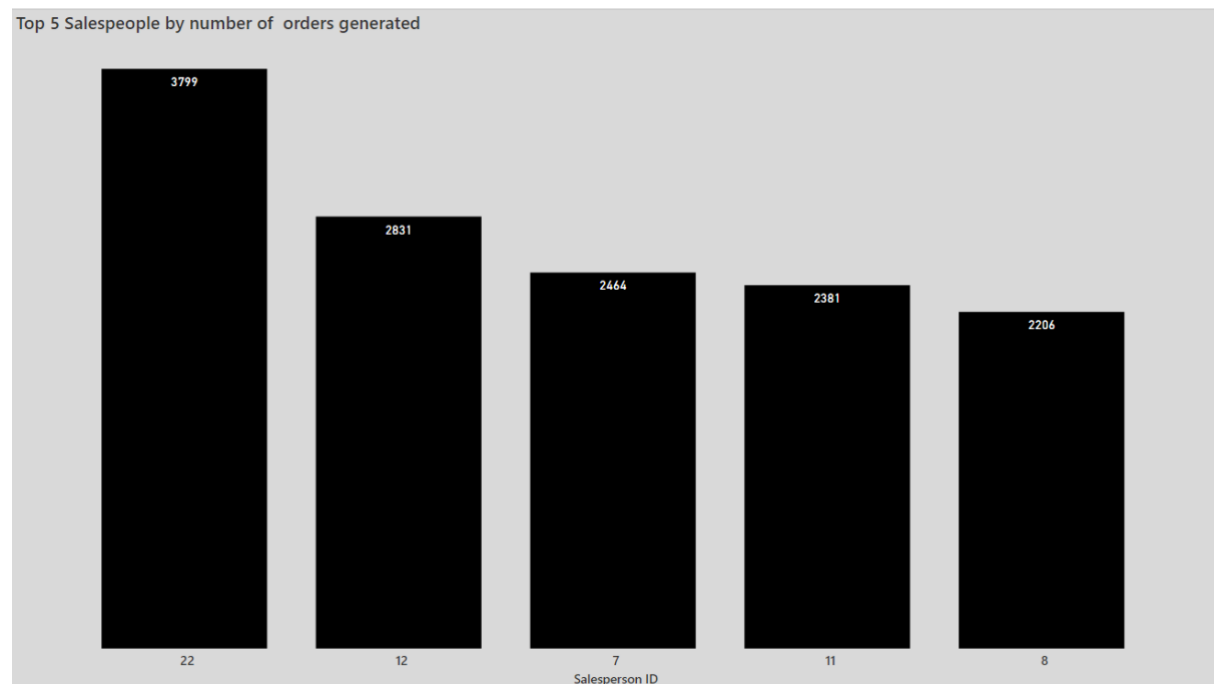

Salespeople 22, 7 and 12 show a higher ability to target high-revenue products, thus reflecting their higher contributions to revenue. However, since higher revenue contribution is mostly dependent on the price of products, it is important to look into the number of units of products sold by the salespeople.

Looking at sales in terms of the quantities sold, the standings of the top performers are as follows:

- Salesperson 22 positions as the best performer selling 6.7M units, yet again taking the first place.
- Salesperson 12 has made sales of 5.1M units, reinforcing their position as the second-best performer.
- In third place, we observe salesperson 7 selling 4.4M.

Based on the orders generated, salesperson 22 takes the top place generating 3799 orders followed by salesperson 12 with 2831 orders generated throughout the year, confirming their position as the top two performers respectively.

Considering revenue, profits, units sold and orders generated with a focus on the profits, Salesperson 22 has clearly emerged as the best performer and Salesperson 12 as the second-best. This can be attributed to the larger customer networks of salespersons 22 and 12 driving overall sales. Salesperson 7 comes in third considering the above metrics.

Ability to acquire new customers:

Overall, 4 new customers have been acquired in 2023 by multiple salespeople. The table below shows that one new customer each was acquired by salespeople 4, 5, 12 and 22. Considering the previous standings, salespersons 22 and 12 have an equal number of new customers, confirming their place in the top two performers.
